Romantic Winters in The Regal North

Stockholm is incredible in all seasons but there's something extra magical about winter. For the ultimate experience, a trip to the Arctic North will make you fall in love even more. Welcome to an enchanting capital city, made up of islands, romantic bridges, surrounded by water, parks and wide snow-covered landscapes in the depth of winter. We hope to keep Stockholm open in your hearts and minds, because we cannot wait to warmly welcome you all to share the love. So, here's a little teaser, for what to expect in our romantic winter season. Välkommen.

Day 1 Arrival to Royal Stockholm – Day 1

On arrival, we'll gladly meet and assist you to your hotel, it only takes 20 minutes by speed train to central Stockholm and approx. 40 minutes by private car or taxi direct to the door of your hotel. Try our VIP service for ultimate privacy and swiftness.

Stay at Hotel Diplomat (or other) - A family-owned hotel for all, that feels like home. Perfectly located at a sought-after address in the city, easy walking distance to nearly everything. For an extra special occasion, choose a suite with stunning bay views. They're pet friendly as well. See the list of LGBT+ partner hotels for more options.

Explore your new neighborhood with your guide and walk towards Riddarholmen for stunning views of the iconic City Hall, where locals exchange vows and start married life. Discover the Old Town charm through winding roads and cozy cafés. An inside visit of Stockholm Royal Palace's immaculate interior and love stories of royals marrying the loves of their lives, despite the odds. So many stories, and we haven't even started on Queen Kristina and King Gustav III, we'll let your guide enlighten you. Drinks at nearby Riche's Lilla Baren followed by dinner at, Teatergrillen, a discreet oasis with a rich history since 1945.

Day 2 - Shopping, Royal Djurgården & Vasa

A relaxing morning at your own pace before shopping in Bibliotekstan, a fashion and design heaven with local and international labels. Stroll along the water to Royal Djurgården, a national city “pleasure” park for nature, recreation, culture, fun. An inside visit of the Vasa Museum, a magnificent national treasure. A warship constructed in 1628, the most fabulous in the world, so grand, it sank on its maiden voyage. Salvaged 300 years later in near perfect condition - we've been in love ever since. A tragic story-turned success after all. Lunch at Hotel Hasselbacken, then visit Skansen, an open-air museum, showcasing Swedish lifestyle and traditions through the ages.

The charming Seglora church, is popular for weddings. Like many places, Skansen warmly welcomes same sex couples with open arms to celebrate love here (love it!) Pre-theatre dinner at the Cirkus restaurant. The Chambre Séparée holds up to 12 people for intimate celebrations with your favorite loved ones followed by a fabulous show at the legendary Cirkus Arena.

Day 3 - From Stockholm to Swedish Lapland

Brace yourself for an adventurous leg of your trip, just a 1,5-hour flight from Stockholm to the Arctic and their warm and welcoming people. Bundle up, because you are in for a heck of a welcome husky ride from Kiruna airport. Powered by your own team of enthusiastic huskies - pure winter magic. Stay at the iconic Ice Hotel, located 200 km above the Arctic Circle. The world's first and only, open 365 days a year. A wonderland of unique ice-art rooms/suites designed by new artists every year, with private warm bathrooms. A good night's sleep in thermal sleeping bags over reindeer hide-covered beds make for a memorable night.

Day 4 - Dive into the Lapland Landscape

Start your morning on a Swedish wellness note. Embrace your inner Viking with an invigorating roll in the snow, a quick dive in the frozen river then a heated outdoor bathtub in the wild. Now that's a wakeup call! Visit the Ice hotel chapel for all, home to many nuptials for that unique winter wedding. In the evening, you dine, then hunt for the Northern Lights out in the wild with your own photographer, so we never miss a moment.

Day 5 - Departure

After an ice dive and sauna, savor the nature, the serenity of white landscapes and being at one with the arctic and each other. Your airport transfer will be a wild one, a snowmobile awaits.

We look forward to welcoming you!
